TRAVEL

TRAVELLING FROM LISBON HUMBERTO DELGADO AIRPORT

If you're flying into Lisbon Humberto Delgado Airport, the Airport Metro Station is conveniently located at Terminal 1 (T1), on the south side of the terminal at the Arrivals level.

The Metro station is just outside, beneath the building. The Red Line of the Metro serves the airport, heading toward São Sebastião. For train and bus connections, take the Red Line to Oriente Station, a quick 6-minute ride.

Bus services also operate from Sete Rios Bus Station. To reach this station, take the Red Line to its terminus at São Sebastião, then transfer to the Blue Line toward Reboleira. Get off at Jardim Zoológico, where the Sete Rios Bus Station (Terminal Rodoviário) is just across the road, a few minutes' walk away. The entire journey takes about 35 minutes.

LISBON METRO KEYPOINTS

- Humberto Delgado Airport (Aeroporto Station): Starting point on the Red Line.
- Oriente Station: Major hub for train and bus connections.
- São Sebastião Station: Transfer point from the Red Line to the Blue Line.
- Jardim Zoológico Station: Exit point for Sete Rios Bus Station.

Lisbon Metro Tickets

Metro tickets can be purchased at on-site automatic machines or ticket offices. You can buy a rechargeable Navegante Occasional card (approx. €0.50) and load it with individual metro tickets (approx. €1.80 per trip). Be sure to scan your card twice—once when entering and again when exiting your destination station. The Airport and both Oriente and Jardim Zoológico metro stations are located within metro fare Zone 1.

TRAIN

CP (Comboios de Portugal) manages railway services throughout Portugal. You can check timetables and purchase tickets on their website or at on-site ticket offices in the station hub.

Several daily trains connect Lisboa Oriente with Figueira da Foz. For a good balance of price and travel time, consider the IC|U service, which takes approximately 2.5 hours. This combined ticket provides a smooth transition between trains with minimal waiting time. The Intercidades (IC) train will take you from Lisboa-Oriente to Granja do Ulmeiro – Alfarelos, where you'll have to transfer to an Urbano (U) train that will take you to Figueira da Foz train station. The station is located in the city, about a 20-minute walk from the Santos Rocha Municipal Museum.

BUS

The bus station is located in the western part of the Oriente Station complex, at ground level across the eight branches outlined in the station's structure. Rede Expressos is a Portuguese bus provider offering multiple trips throughout the day. You can check timetables and purchase tickets on their website or at on-site ticket offices at Av. Aquilino Ribeiro Machado 205, 1990-084 in the station hub. They offer a direct connection to Figueira da Foz, with travel time ranging from 2 hours and 20 minutes to 3 hours and 15 minutes departing from Terminal Gare do Oriente at the main station.

FlixBus is another provider offering direct connections to Figueira da Foz, with travel times ranging roughly the same time. Timetables and tickets can be checked and purchased on their website or at on-site ticket offices at Gare de Oriente, 1800 (Iberocoach Lisboa) in the station hub. Their buses depart from Avenida Dom João II (Estação do Oriente – Plataforma D), 1990-233 or Avenida de Berlim in the station hub. Tickets contain detailed departure address information.

SETE RIOS BUS STATION

Rede Expressos also operates from Sete Rios Bus Station, which can be easily reached by metro. Take the Blue Line to Jardim Zoológico Station, which is right next to the Terminal Rodoviário de Sete Rios where buses depart from.

You can check timetables and purchase tickets on their website or at on-site ticket offices. The direct connection from Sete Rios to Figueira da Foz takes approximately 2 hours and 45 minutes.

TRAVELLING FROM PORTO FRANCISCO DE SÁ CARNEIRO AIRPORT

Porto's Francisco de Sá Carneiro Airport is served by Metro Line E also known as the Purple Line. Take the metro to Campanhã Metro Station to find train and bus services.

Porto Metro

To use Porto's metro service, you need to purchase a rechargeable card called the Andante Azul (approximately €0.60) and charge it with individual tickets. Before boarding and after disembarking, you must validate your ticket at the metro entrance by pressing it against the presented control posts. Remember to repeat this procedure every time you change trains during the same journey. The price per trip varies depending on the metro zones. For travel from the Airport to Campanhã Station, select the Z4 option (approximately €2.25). The ticket is valid for 1 hour and 15 minutes from validation. The journey from the airport to the main station takes about 35 minutes.
